

IEEE Professional Development Seminar
Managing Your Career in Challenging Times

Embassy Suites, Charlotte/Concord, NC

March 18-19, 2010

Thursday Evening

Networking for Success – A dynamic evening of facilitated networking with students and professionals

Friday Morning - Future Trends

Negotiating for a Better Job (include types of compensation, benefit considerations, stock options, retirement issues, health care, workplace)

Health Care Informatics

Innovation, entrepreneurship, education, and policy - how do they influence each other and why should you care?

Lunch & Dessert with the Experts

Friday Afternoon – Managing Your Career

Developing a Software Company from Scratch

Large Company-Small Company: Which is for you?

Alternate Science Careers-Panel Discussion

Join SoutheastCon 2010 for further networking

Invited Speakers

Julie Britt, Workforce Planning & Staffing, AREVA NP

Duane Branch, PhD, Elizabeth City State University

Charlotte, DiLeonardo, CEO, Zebra Print Solutions

M. Rita Geiger, CEO, InfoStrength, Inc.

Thomas C. Jepsen, Chair of the IEEE-USA Medical Technology Policy Committee

Margaret Rosenfeld, J.D, Partner, Smith, Anderson, Blount,

Dorsett, Mitchell & Jernigan, L.L.P.

Sharlini Sankaran, Assistant Director, Office of Science and Technology,

NC Department of Commerce

Katherine Sliva, CEO, KELS Consulting

Sponsored by

For More Information and to Register:

<http://southeastcon2010.org/> Look for Technical Programs